NO WONDER leading businesses and organizations are constantly on the lookout for powerful imagery to bolster their communication and marketing efforts. To help companies enhance their information through the use of high quality images, professional photographer Maria Olsen has developed a special offer that presents a new approach to photography pricing: Photo-Choice.

With Photo-Choice, you can purchase your package of exclusive, top quality, fully licensed photographs without having to worry about royalties.

Whether you represent a corporation, an agency, or an editorial office, Photo-Choice combines the convenience of digital stock images with the power of assignment based, fully customized, unique photographs, taken exclusively on your behalf, placing them at your fingertips.

Photo-Choice is an all-inclusive concept that covers everything from planning to photo session to delivery of high-resolution digital images, applying standardized prices to packages ranging from 6 to 24 royalty-free pictures.

We invite you to add visual leverage, credibility, prestige, and precision to your public image by using Photo-Choice for your website, ad campaign, newsletter, brochure, or annual report.

Boost your image and make this valuable resource available to you—it's worth it many times over.
